

"If you are a woman, live with a woman, or know a woman, this is a MUST SEE FILM"

hot flash havoc

a film of menopausal proportions

"A Night at the Movies"

Sponsored by

Texas Health
Presbyterian Hospital
DALLAS

Tuesday, Sept. 27, 2011

Hot Flash Havoc, a film of menopausal proportions, is a film for anyone who who is a woman. Learn about staying vital, alert and sexual from 35 to your 80s and onward. Join us for an enlightening evening that includes hormones, hot flashes, sexual information and humor! Gather your girlfriends for a fun and enlightening evening out, or bring your spouse! Men are welcome too!

GIFT BAGS • RED BOA RECEPTION • Q&A WITH EXPERTS • DESSERTS

LOCATION: Angelika Film Center & Cafe, Mockingbird Station
5321 E. Mockingbird Lane, Dallas, TX 75206

PARKING: FREE parking garage available adjacent to the theater. It can be accessed from the Northbound Central Expressway service road. Take the parking garage elevators to Floor 2. Theater entrance is on the second floor across from Trinity Hall.

TICKETS: Tickets are $25 and include the movie, Q&A discussion panel with medical experts and experts from the film, gift bag, and Red Boa Reception with "Mood Swing Libations and Hot Flash Desserts"

6:30 p.m. Doors open

7 - 8:30 p.m. Private Screening of "Hot Flash Havoc, a film of menopausal proportions"

8:30 - 9 p.m. "A Conversation with the Experts."
Q&A Session about perimenopause and menopause

TO BUY TICKETS

visit www.HotFlashHavoc.com and click on "Buy Event Tickets."

